

For a more effective, more democratic Anti - Poverty Program, elect U.C.C. trustees responsive to the people:

PLEDGED TO:

1. GIVE A GREATER VOICE
TO POOR PEOPLE IN THE ANTI-POVERTY PROGRAM.

MRS. NAUDI NELSON: of 57½ Hanford, is a shop steward for the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. She is a member of the Newark Committee for Better Public Schools, and has been endorsed by the members of "People in Progress," Area Board IV. Mrs. Nelson was nominated by Rev. Gordon Foster and seconded by Mrs. Bessie Smith.

2. STRENGTHEN THE ROLE
OF AREA BOARDS BY
AUTHORIZING THE AREA
BOARDS TO HIRE THEIR OWN STAFF, AND BY
HAVING ALL PROGRAM
PROPOSALS GO THROUGH THE AREA BOARDS.

MR. JAMES TATE, of 23 Riverview Terrace, is the treasurer of the FDR Tenants' League, a member of the Ironbound Community Council, and a scoutmaster for Troop #118. A trustee of Area Board V, Mr. Tate was nominated by Phillip L. Hutchings and seconded by Howard Goeringer.

MISS ANITA WARREN, of 684 Hunterdon St., is a member of the Newark Community Union Project, a trustee for the "Peoples' Action Group," Area Board III, and is a trustee of the Community Service Center. She was nominated by Earl Harris and seconded by Mrs. Wyla McClain.

DEREK WINANS, 45 Lincoln Park, a co-founder of the BICC, secretary of the Newark Coordinating Council, editor of ADVANCE, and a founder of the U.C.C. was nominated by Kenneth Gibson and seconded by Willie Wright.